

'Animal Farm' A-Z

Which A is the political philosophy that draws comparisons with Communism and Fascism?

Which B is the title of the animals' rousing anthem? _____

Which C is the term the animals use to address one another, again alluding to Communism?

Which D was published in 1933 and demonstrated Orwell's lived perspective on class divisions?

Which E is what all animals should be according to the last of the commandments?

Which F was initially intended to be preserved as a museum? _____

Which G completes the phrase "Four legs..."? _____

Which H is featured on the flag for Animal Farm, the design of which echoes the Soviet flag?

Which I describes the state of Napoleon after the pigs have consumed the case of whiskey?

Which J is the usurped owner of the farm? _____

Which K is widely regarded as the founder of Communism?

Which L describes the activity that Boxer dedicates himself to? _____

Which M was Mr Jones' special pet who told tales of Sugarcandy Mountain?

Which N is presciently described as having 'a reputation for getting his own way'?

Which O provides the stimulus for the revolution?

Which P is the owner of Foxwood who eventually forms an alliance with Napoleon?

Which Q is a fancy word to describe Benjamin the donkey? _____

Which R is excluded from the animals' revolution because they cannot be tamed?

Which S is a gifted rhetorical speaker? _____

Which T is used to describe Man in the lyrics to Beasts of England but could equally be used to describe what Napoleon and the pigs become?

Which U were the commandments intended to create but which is broken along with them?

Which V is a personality trait that Minimus' ode to Napoleon appeals to in its subject and is also displayed by Mollie?

Which W becomes a symbol for both the success and the struggles of Animal Farm?

Which eX describes the fate of Snowball, who is forced to flee from the farm?

Which Y is corrupted by Napoleon taking the pups and raising them as his personal guard dogs, just as Hitler set up scout-like troops to indoctrinate the next generation into becoming obedient soldiers?

Which Z is an adjective typically applied to political and religious activists and is a good description of some of the behaviour on Animal Farm?
